

STANDARDS & PROHIBITED CONDUCT: A GUIDE

This guide is for everyone involved in sport, such as members, participants, employees, contractors and volunteers. This includes players and athletes, coaches, instructors, officials and administrators at all levels.

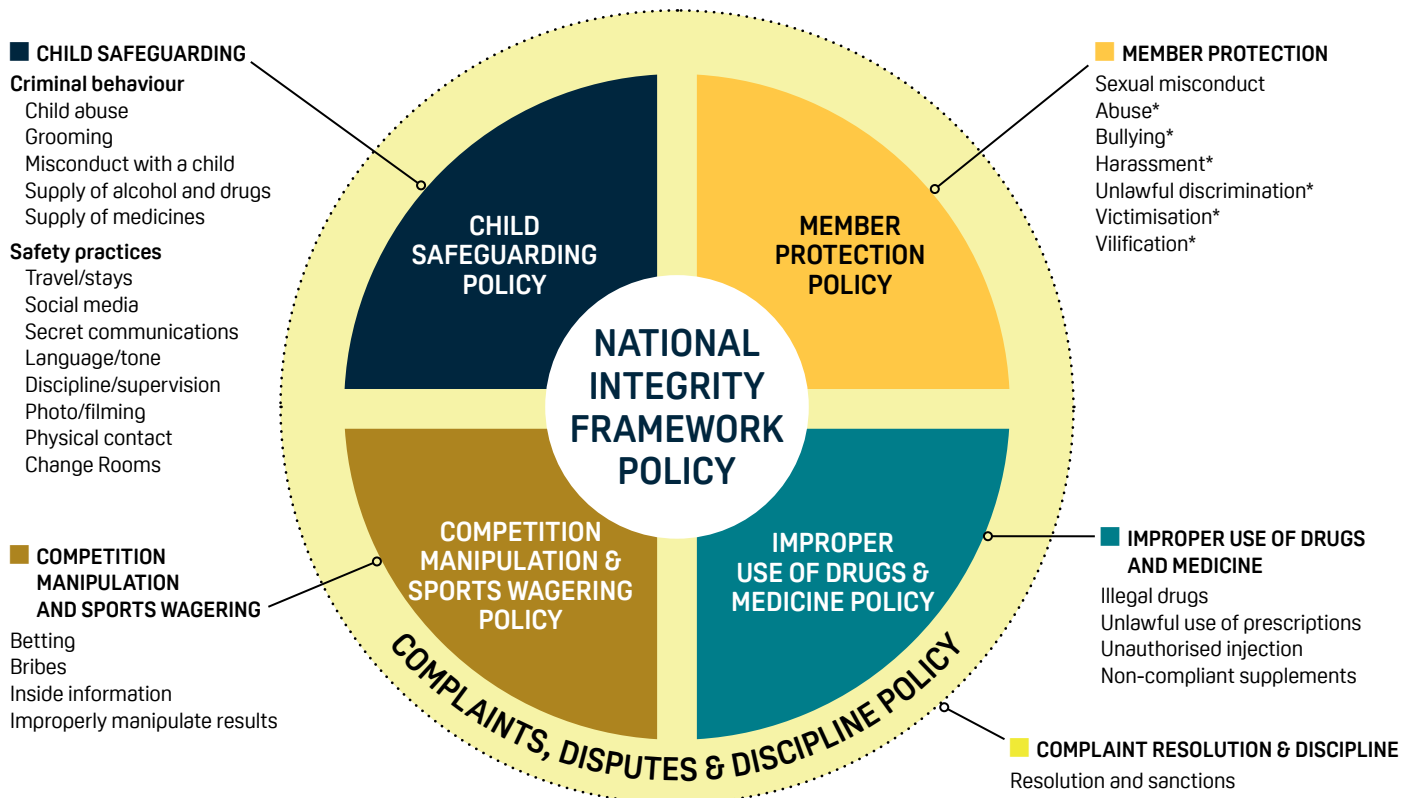

THE NATIONAL INTEGRITY FRAMEWORK

This Guide provides an overview of the expected standards of conduct as set out in the National Integrity Framework.

The National Integrity Framework is a suite of policies designed to ensure a safe, fair and healthy sporting environment for all by setting out unacceptable behaviours in sport, known as Prohibited Conduct.

Prohibited Conduct ranges from misconduct such as disrespectful behaviour to serious criminal acts (including assault, sexual offences and drug offences).

NATIONAL INTEGRITY FRAMEWORK POLICIES

* In addition to your sporting organisation's involvement in matters relating to bullying, harassment, or discrimination, Sport Integrity Australia may become directly involved in such matters where they relate to a 'protected characteristics', such as such as protecting a child, or involves discrimination on the grounds of race, sex, age, disability or religion.

Everyone must ensure they understand the full extent of their responsibilities by referring to the National Integrity Framework Policies.

Please check online with your National Sporting Organisation to access relevant Policies for your sport.

Failure to comply with the National Integrity Framework Policies may lead to Sanctions ranging from a warning and mandatory education to a ban from participating. Criminal conduct will be managed by law enforcement
